

NewsRelease

Public Service Alliance of Canada

MEDIA ADVISORY

January 17, 2012

Union holds press conference on cuts at Veterans Affairs Canada

HALIFAX, NS - The Union of Veterans' Affairs Employees (UVAE), a component of the Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC), will hold a press conference to raise awareness on the negative impact that cutbacks at Veterans Affairs Canada will have on services VAC employees provide to veterans and their families.

UVAE National President Yvan Thauvette and National Vice-President Michelle Hachey will make an announcement and answer questions.

Also in attendance will be Jeannie Baldwin, PSAC Regional Executive Vice-President, Peter Stoffer, Member of Parliament for Sackville-Eastern Shore and NDP Critic for Veterans Affairs, and members of the veterans and labour communities.

- 30 -

When: 10am, Thursday, January 19, 2012

Where: Lunenburg Room, Westin Hotel, 1181 Hollis St, Halifax, NS

Available for comment and interviews:

Yvan Thauvette, Union of Veterans Affairs Employees National President
Michelle Hachey, Union of Veterans Affairs Employees National Vice- President
Jeannie Baldwin, Regional Executive Vice-President, Public Service Alliance of Canada
Peter Stoffer, Member of Parliament for Sackville-Eastern Shore and NDP Critic for Veterans Affairs

Lesley Thompson, PSAC Communications, 902-471-6201